Welcome to Martin.
Every year thousands of guitar enthusiasts visit the Martin Museum and factory to enjoy what’s inside the world of Martin Guitar.
Visitors Center Highlights

The factory tours and museum are only part of the attraction.

- The 1833 Shop
- The Pickin’ Parlor is a private room where you can play high-end and limited edition guitars.
- The Play Me Wall is where the world comes to test out the new factory offerings and some top-selling guitars.
- The Album and CD Display represents music icons from Bob Dylan to Willie Nelson.
- We offer both warranty and non-warranty repair services on Martin instruments by appointment only, Monday - Friday, 8:30 am - 4:30 pm. This includes setup, fret work, neck resets, structural repairs, electronic installations, refinishing, custom work and more.
The Martin Guitar Museum is a center for reflection, bringing together music history, culture and craftsmanship.
As part of our mission, we are dedicated to preserving and enhancing our unique heritage and the history of music.

A collection of historical instruments, memorabilia, photographs and other objects tell the Martin story — past and present — and our commitment to keeping the music alive.

Museum Highlights

• More than 200 rare, vintage instruments are on display, from the Stauffer and Ditson models to the D-45 Pre-War and sustainable wood models.

• The Museum honors the artists who created music history, from Gene Autry and Johnny Cash to Elvis and John Mayer.

No charge. Self-guided Monday - Friday, 8:00 am - 5:00 pm.

Go to www.martinguitar.com to check for holiday closing schedule.
As a visitor on the factory floor, your guided tour will show you how our guitars come to life through the hands of the craftsperson.
We take such extreme pride in the guitars we produce that we open our doors every weekday for guided tours of our factory. See just how committed we are to building the finest steel-string acoustic guitars in the world.
